PASTOR KOENIGS

A Perfect Success. VII

The Rev. A. Antoine, of Hefugio, Tex., writes: As far as I am able to judge, I think Pastor Koonin's Nerve Tonic is a perfect success, for anyone who suffered from a most painful nervousness as I did, I feel like myself again after taking the Tonic.

A Sunday School Superintendent Endorses It.

SEKENTARY, Dorchester Co., Md., March 8 '91.
A scholar in the M. E. Sunday school for which I am superintendent I know was compelled to stay at home on account of her illness. I have used your Koenig's Nerve Tonic and already feeling better. I think the cure the most remarkable I have ever seen or heard of, and this Nerve Tonic deserves the most credit and has my fullest endorsement.

Hartford Republican

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

J. M. ROGERS, Editor and Proprietor.

FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1892.

SOME of Hartford's Blind Tigers have sufficient use of their optics to walk the streets and catch unsuspecting (?) victims.

JUDGE L. P. LITTLE has appointed W. G. Hardwick to fill out the unexpired term of Circuit Clerk Clarence Hardwick, deceased. The appointment is an eminently proper one and but voices the wishes of the good people of Ohio county. Billie is one of the best and most deserving young men in our midst.

THE Louisville Commercial says: "The bill putting wool on the free list passed the House by a party vote. The free-traders hold that a protective duty is a honey-pot to the producers of protected articles that gives them a great advantage and makes them rich. The free-traders also claim to be the special friends of the farmer, and yet, by this bill, they deprive him of the protection on his product, but leaves the manufacturers, whom they are continually denouncing as robbers, still protected. The farmers may well pray to be saved from such friends."

THE Hartford Herald, the Courier-Journal and other papers over the State that take more to noise than truth have been circulating a story which is either a wilful misstatement or a piece of gross and inexcusable ignorance when they say that not one of Ohio county's delegates to the recent Republican Convention was a colored man. S. M. Taylor, one of Ohio county's brightest and best educated colored boys, and one of whom the county is justly proud, was a delegate, and the man who started this groundless rumor had no excuse, whatever, for his statement.

THE Democratic majority of one hundred and fifty in the House does not dare to repeal the Protective Policy, and in view of this fact the boasts by Free Trade organs of "victory to protection when the people shall again control," is idiotic and silly. The Democracy claims that the people rose en masse against the McKinley Bill; now, why don't the House carry out this opposition bolstered up by the "triumph of lying"? The truth is no doubt found in the fact that they are afraid to destroy the prosperity of the people, built up under wise protective laws. A system of tariff for revenue only never has brought anything but disaster to the American people, and it would bring nothing else now. The people don't want it and the Democracy has found it out. Hence, their "no doing policy."

THE meeting at the Baptist Church closed Wednesday night after a continuance of nine days. Notwithstanding the great obstacles against which the meeting has had necessarily to contend, the effort was crowned with reasonable success. Several conversions and recommitments and eight additions to the church were among the fruits. Besides, the people of Hartford have had an opportunity of listening to one of the ablest series of sermons ever delivered in Hartford. Rev. Sallee left yesterday for Henderson, carrying with him the friendship, love and prayers of a host of friends he has gained during his short stay with us. While Dr. Coleman has, if possible, more firmly entrenched himself to his little flock here, for whom he has labored so earnestly and faithfully. May he live long to do good in the world.

MISS LAZZIE WALKER, daughter of Judge E. Dudley Walker, of this place, is an applicant for a position on the Woman's Committee to be appointed by Kentucky's Board of Commissioners of the Columbian Exposition, and we do trust that she may be successful, knowing that she is well educated and well reared, and occupies a most enviable position in the literary world. Her writings are copied in various papers and magazines of the United States, and she has earned the name of "The Sweet Singer of the South." She desires the place, too, because it will furnish her a broader field to pursue her literary avocation. Her face, sketch and some productions of hers will appear in magazines and books now in preparation, and she now enjoys the distinction of being requested by the Associated Press for the privilege of publishing the same in the various papers of the Association, embracing the principal cities of the country. We feel that we are warranted in saying that she has not a superior in the State, nor is there one better fitted to discharge the duties or adorn the position she seeks.

THE House has passed a bill placing wool on the free list and were it not for a Republican Senate and a Republican President it would become a law, thus dealing a deadly blow at one of our great national industries. The object of this bill according to its friends is to give to the "bloated," "thieving," "protected" manufacturers cheaper raw materials. Is it possible, the Democracy has begun legislating for the hat manufacturer, and against the much loved (?)

farmer! No, no, say they, and then with a show of effrontery, possessed only by the leaders of the Democratic party and their willing tools, they set about explaining to the farmer that he would get more for his wool-clip with free wool than he would with a protective duty on foreign wool. In short, the farmer will get a higher price for the wool he sells, and strange to say, his friend, the manufacturer, will get it cheaper than ever before. Hot and cold, high and low, dear and cheap at the same time. Such is Democratic reasoning with which that party comes to the American farmer and asks for his suffrage. But the people know these sophistries of old and are not deceived by them. The masses are becoming too intelligent to be misled by Democratic campaign methods, for among other things they remember the "triumph of lying."

PLEASANT RIDGE.
April 13.—The Baptists of this place met at St. Marks on Sunday last at 10 o'clock a. m., according to previous appointment. The object of which was for the committee to report, which had been appointed at a previous meeting for the purpose of making necessary arrangements prior to the organization of a Baptist Church at this place. The meeting was called to order by Bro. Jerry Barahill, who by unanimous consent was made chairman. The committee reported adversely on account of not being able to procure the services of Dr. Coleman, and other ministers whom we desire to be with us. So by unanimous consent the organization of the church was postponed until the 4th Saturday in May to suit their convenience.

Superintendents Rogers and Ellis met at this place Monday, April 12th, and succeeded in uniting the two school districts joining here, and located a site for a new school building at Pleasant Ridge. This is but an outgrowth of the interest aroused by the successful working of Prof. I. S. Mason's select school and his indefatigable efforts in the educational work. Our town is now on a permanent educational boom, and the people are anxiously awaiting the erection of the high school building and the opening of school next September.

Superintendents Rogers and Ellis gave the school interesting and encouraging talks April 4th, also Bro. B. A. Cundiff lectured in the afternoon on "Science as Taught by the Bible."

Miss Anna Hunter has just returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Hartford.

Prof. I. S. Mason's class in orations will entertain Friday night at the closing of the first term of ten weeks.

PARADISE.
April 11th.—Joseph Fox, of Silver City, New Mexico, arrived in town last Monday, having been called to the bed-side of his brother, who is very low with catarrhal pneumonia.

Bro. Wallace, of Rockport, was in town last Sunday.

The log-men are very much rejoiced to see the river rising so rapidly.

Dr. H. L. King, of Centertown, was called to see H. C. Fox last Sunday.

Harry Moore went to Hartford last Sunday to visit relatives, he said.

E. V. Milligan, of Hartford, was in town last week.

FALLS OF ROUGH.
Willis Green is able to be out. G. B. Smith is quite sick.

Cal. L. Green made a business trip to Louisville last Thursday.

Thomas Bond, of Louisville, is peeling tan bark near here. He has several hands at work for him and will furnish employment to all who may want to work.

Timber work seems to be on a boom. Barfield & Mashroe have bought nearly all the timber within 4 miles of this place. Tuttle & Wooley landed here with their flat boat last Saturday. Rumor says they are running the Falls of Rough Packet.

Good business is being carried on at the axe handle factory and saw-mills. Miss Rosa Morris, of Louisville, is depot agent at this place.

On last Monday night our little town was thrown into a fever of excitement over the storm that was raging. The gale was so hard that many people rose from their beds, thinking their lives and property were in danger. Two barns belonging to Cash Wilson were completely destroyed. The house that Wm. Chancellor occupies would have been unroofed had it not been tied down with ropes during the storm.

A new corner made its appearance at the residence of Wm. Chancellor a few days ago. It's a girl.

OWENSBORO NOTES.
April 11.—The remains of Mr. Wm. McHenry, of Hartford, were laid to rest at Elmwood yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. E. E. Pate, and a large number of people were gathered to witness the last sad rites over this eminent man. This was the second interment of the day at Elmwood.

though they are sometimes varied by such unpleasant incidents as "too jolly" passenger or the necessity of leaving some of their friends behind in the care of the "City Hotel" no such misfortune, however, is predicted for this occasion. Owensboro is full of people shopping preparatory to the celebration of Easter. Many of our merchants had openings last week and no doubt the fortunate sight-seers on Easter morn will behold such visions of loveliness, all bedecked with flowers, laces and streamers as to make him wonder if this is not the first fair Easter now celebrated by Seraphs on high. If there is anything that the churches of our city thoroughly recognize, it is the influence that good music has upon a congregation. An instance of this kind was taken note of a few Sundays ago. A rather miserly old gent who did not believe in aiding a congregation whose opinions did not coincide with his own, attended one of the first churches recently. When the ushers started around with their contribution boxes, this gentleman was sitting very still and upright, but when a young lady of the choir arose and rendered a most beautiful solo, his heart melted, and by the time he was waited upon, he was in the mood for freely giving.

The result of the recent State Convention at Louisville seems to be satisfactory to the mass of Republicans who attended from this place, and now we are glad to note that the "political pot" boils less furiously since the "days of danger, nights of waking" are over.

Muhlenberg County.
(Central City Republicans.)
It was our pleasure last week to meet Wood Tinsley, of Hartford, at the Louisville Convention. He is the man who told about a storm which struck his locality some time ago and which he said was so severe that it blew a cat through a tree, proving it by saying to those who were present that they all knew that a tallow candle could be shot through a plank, to which all agreed. Governor Buckner and Judge Bennett hearing of the story each sent Tinsley a check for five dollars, saying that a man who could tell such a yarn and then prove it by such an assertion deserved to be paid for it.

(The Muhlenbergers.)
Prof. J. D. Coleman, the youngest son of Dr. J. S. Coleman, of Hartford, has accepted a position in the city schools of Frankfort. It will be remembered that Prof. McHenry Rhoads was called to the position of Superintendent of the same schools some time ago. So it goes. When Western Kentucky wants a first-class horse-trainer, she sends to Central Kentucky for him, and when the Blue Grass wants a first-class teacher, she sends to Western Kentucky for him.

Dr. J. S. Coleman occupied his pulpit at the Baptist Church last Sunday, morning and evening. The Doctor has been suffering for some months with bronchitis, but is some better now. The morning sermon, especially, was a powerful effort. He preached from the text: "Ye are Christ's" and for over an hour he held his large congregation spell-bound. Dr. Coleman is unquestionably one of the most powerful pulpit orators in Kentucky. We may differ from him in opinion, but we cannot help admiring the fearlessness with which he preaches the truth as he understands it. We will say by way of parenthesis, that the safest way to avoid his conclusions is to deny his premises, for his premises once admitted, his conclusions are overwhelming.

ROSINE.
R. R. Wedding is making preparations to build a hotel on the Vanot lot. When the building is completed, Rosine will look more natural.

Jim Peach has bought Dr. L. T. Cox's property.

Miss Sallie Thomas is quite sick.

L. P. Crowder returned from Louisville Monday.

Mrs. Clas Sullenger, after a short visit to Mrs. Whittingham, returned to her home Monday.

Some of the ladies and gentlemen of the town are expecting to have some "firate theatricals" soon.

A dance was given by the young gentlemen of Rosine last Saturday night at J. Raley's empty store. A great number were present and a grand success. The visitors in attendance were the "Horton party," Dr. Felix, Olton, and A. Roman, Evansville.

Rev. Bennett filled his regular appointment Sunday night at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. E. D. Guffy, Hartford, visited her mother last Saturday.

BITTER SWEET.

New Tariff Documents.
Three admirable documents have just been issued by the American Protective Tariff League.

No. 10, "Farmer and Tariff" is a complete revision of an article, which proved very popular in 1888.

No. 53 is entitled "Free Trade England and Protection United States."

No. 54 embraces the reports of the Minority of the Ways and Means Committee on the bill to put Wool, Binding Twine and Cotton Bagging on the Free list. The document publications of the League now embrace fifty-four numbers all of which will be sent to any address for fifty cents.

Address Wilber F. Wakeman, Gen'l Sec'y 135 West 23d Street, New York.

ADABURGH.
April 16.—Rev. D. E. Barrett, of McHenry, and W. D. Cox, of Corydon, are conducting a series of meetings at Mt. Moriah Schoolhouse. More interest in religion is manifested there than for many years. 25 souls have been happily converted to God and the interest is increasing. The preachers belong to the M. E. Church, South, and are very zealous in the cause of their Master. They will protract the services until the 17th when they will go to Ralph's Chapel or Taylor Mines.

We regret that Miss Bertha Gibson has severed her connection with the Bazaar, which, under the more recent management of Sara & Me, has become so deservedly popular. It was to her ability, energy and great personal popularity, in no small degree, that their success is attributable.

In speaking of Ferguson's trial last week, by some mistake we said that Musie & Hayward conducted the prosecution, when we should have said they assisted the County Attorney. It is our aim to give facts as they occur and we take pleasure in correcting the above mistake.

Prof. Bryce Taylor's school at No. 25 gave an elegant entertainment on Saturday night, the 9th inst. The Exercises consisted of music, essays, and declamations. The large audience highly enjoyed the evening. We expected to give an extended account, but the report came in too late.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hamilton have made their home among us, and Mr Hamilton will engage in merchandising, having bought the interest of Miss Bertha Gibson in the popular trading place, known as Anderson's Bazaar. He is one of Ohio county's most popular young men, and Mrs. Hamilton will be remembered as the beautiful and accomplished Miss Lulu Buchanan, who has a host of friends whom she gained during her former stay in Hartford. Again, we welcome them.

William McHenry died at the residence of Mrs. Jennie McHenry last Friday morning, he was a wonderful man. When a young man he founded a paper in St. Louis, Mo., and acquired quite a reputation as a journalist. In after life he sold his paper and spent the most of his time in traveling, consequently he was one of the best informed men of his day. He left an estate of $125,000, which, as he was a bachelor, he divided among his relatives. He was taken to Owensboro Saturday and buried in Elmwood Cemetery in the presence of a host of sorrowing friends.

Lost! Pocket book, containing $15 and some other papers. Finder will please return to me and receive reward.

Young Men!

Don't you know that we carry one of the largest, newest and most stylish lines of Clothing in the Green River Country?

That we are selling them every day to the better trade for less money than they can buy them elsewhere?

Had you heard that we are having a big trade on our line of Brown-Desnoyer Custom Made Shoes both in Men's and Women's? None better.

Why pay a credit, a profit to others, when you can save money by buying for cash of us?

Be business; make your dollar go as far as possible. Come to see us at Beaver Dam.

College Happenings.

The nearer the close of our year's work comes, it seems that the students apply even more energy and diligence than in the beginning, there has been no shirking from the task assigned each student.

The school was very highly entertained on last Friday morning by a very fine talk from Rev. J. M. Sallenger, of Henderson.

Dr. Coleman was a welcome visitor at General Exercise Friday morning.

Miss Annie Hunter, Pleasant Ridge, and Little Mattie Johnson attended General Exercise last Friday morning.

Prof. Lytle has a fine class in Olney's Algebra.

We wonder what will happen next. The Adelphians are calling for joint meeting of the Adelphians and K. E. C. Societies.

Miss Mary Nall and E. V. Milligan attended General Exercise Monday morning.

Miss Mattie Taylor, Beaver Dam, visited the school Tuesday morning.

John Barrass, Taylor Mines, visited the Grammar and Arithmetic classes Tuesday morning.

Messrs. J. L. Brown and Silas Tichenor visited their homes near McHenry Saturday and Sunday.

Messrs. Moses Glenn, Central City, and Marvin Beau attended General Exercise Wednesday morning.

The class in Elocution in charge of Prof. Foster is growing to be very interesting. There are two divisions of the class, the "kidds" reading one day and the "shoemakers" the next day.

Lodford Truman visited his parents, at Trisler, Saturday and Sunday, attending the dedication of the M. E. Church at Fordville Sunday.

MORE ANON.

TOWN TATTTLER.

Since the revival meetings began in our town some five weeks ago, many souls have been saved, and altogether the town has been greatly improved both spiritually and morally, and with a few more such meetings, Hartford can be classed among the most religious towns in the state, which is very gratifying to her many inhabitants.

Not long ago at one of the Sunday Schools a teacher of one of the classes during the recitation had occasion to ask the class which they had rather do stand on a block of wood 12 inches square or walk twenty miles. One of the students quickly replied: "I'd rather walk twenty miles, and, now, which had you rather do; stand on that block or sit on a sharp nail?"

The Tattler heretofore has been silent as to the condition of the plank-walks of our town, but on witnessing what happened Tuesday night as some ladies were returning from church, he wishes to make some kind of a remonstrance, however, small it may be. Brush was thrown across the walk, making it almost impossible for any lady to pass along without considerable inconvenience.

It is the sole pride of some young ladies to see how many "heaux" they can have at one time. So much has this been practiced by a certain class of girls that they have gone so far and reached such an age that it is now almost impossible for them to marry at all, no matter how hard they wanted to cross the matrimonial sea. This could be easily remedied if every girl would think twice before she speaks.

A writer in the New York Truth says: "I wish that some learned man would write a book on 'The Swelled Head; Its Cause and Cure.' If the book should be what the name implies I would agree to take 20 copies myself, and solicit orders from my friends. The twenty copies I would mail to as many people of my acquaintance who are afflicted with the disease in its worst form, for it has never raged with anything like the severity that has marked its course this winter. And why is it that people in artistic callings are more apt to be stricken with it than those in commercial pursuits? I think it is because the work of the former appeals to women, and consequently puts them in the way of the ever-dangerous, enervating and delightful female flattery. But why is it that the swelled head is a sign of limited attainments, and rarely attacks men who have achieved real success? It may be that swelling takes the place of brains."

Dr. W. M. Carter, Optician, will be in Hartford, Ky., at the Hartford House on April 18, 19 and 20th. He examines the eyes for all errors of refraction. The public is invited to call on him. Examination free.

A SILVER IS SILVER.
The silver men were sassy
And thought they would win it;
The other men were solid—
And silver wasn't in it.

WHAT DOES IT?
Plenty in the pantry,
Riches in the land,
Oil of gladness everywhere in This happy land.

Cash in plentiful showers,
Toiling in a profit
In a land like ours.

None have equal powers.

Cleveland Man.—"Yes."
Hill Man.—"Well, ain't Cleveland a tax? And a tax we're going to get rid of, too, you bet."

NEEDING PRAYING FOIL.
Flossie's mother is an excellent Republican woman, while her father is a pronounced Democrat, and tells it nearly as often as Hill does. The other evening Flossie finished her prayer with "and, oh, Lordie dear, do save papa. Amen."

"Why, Flossie," exclaimed her mother, "what do you mean by saying that? Don't you want any body else saved but papa?"

"Of course I do, mamma," she replied, very seriously, "and you and me's all right; but papa is a Democrat, and it takes a little extra prayin' to get him through, and we ain't sure about it even then, mamma."

THE WARY POLITICIAN AND THE GREEN REPUBLICAN.
The new reporter called on Senator Hill to secure an expression of his opinions on the political issues of the approaching campaign.

"Are you Senator Hill?" inquired the reporter, entering the statesman's parlor.

"I am a Democrat," replied the Senator.

May I inquire, next ventured the reporter, "if you are not a free silver man?"

"I am a Democrat," responded the Senator, politely.

"Ah, indeed," smiled the reporter,
"then are you a free trader?"

"I am a Democrat," still insisted the Senator from New York.

"Are you in favor of a fight in Berling sea?" asked the reporter, carrying the subject out of the country.

"I am a Democrat," answered the Senator, unchanged.

"Are you a candidate for the Presidential nomination at Chicago?"

"I am a Democrat."
"And you want to be President?"

"I am a Democrat," Mr. Hill insisted.

"Thank you for your courtesy, Senator, and the valuable information you have given me," observed the reporter, with a bow; "now will you join me in a glass of the good old stuff?"

"I am a Democrat," responded the Senator, graciously.

"Yes, I know; that's why I asked you to join me," said the reporter, starting out, but the Senator did not join him, and as he picked his way along down the hall he communicated with himself, saying:

"I wonder if that man wasn't lying to me, after all."

RESPONSE.

I've thought so oft since reading
Your search for life's very best,
How kindly our Heavenly Father
Has granted our every request.

His love is ever so "beautiful."
He gives to us all—"Machere,"
With it no heart is utterly sad;
"Dreunness" never is "everywhere."

Beautiful thoughts are the "sunhenns"
That ever hang over your way, Your future years, the "buds and blossoms."

The present is planting each day.
Your blessing—the "beautiful realities"—
God send them all I ween;
Better far He knows full well
Than all your "vanished dreams."

Your friends, "the bright faces near you,"
Their love I'm sure does take
"The weariness out of the burdens That life's grimmest duties make."

Your teacher friends, the "steadfast hearts,"
"That beat in concert with thine," Stand with us "neath hallow'd sunshine Drink with us of love divine."

We are the friends that love you,
Who try to be "noble and kind,"
Who see might but "beautiful treasures."

Hidden away in each child's mind, Ours, the beautiful work to unfold them,
Op'ning each day some fountain of light,
Living each moment a life so exalted A perfect example of truth and of light.

The memory of the "dearest hope"
Has made you kind and good;
Your soul speaks a steadfast heart,
A type of truest womanhood.

And as the endless scroll of time
Unwinds your future years,
May each prove happier than the last Ne'er fraught with sighs or tears.

Thus may you reach that haven,
Thro' "mist" of happy fate—
To where your fondest "treasures" live Beyond the "Shining Gates."

IN AND ABOUT TOWN.
"Well, here we are again," as Prof.
Alexander says: "We are like cold some always on hand." Speaking of Prof. Alexander reminds us of that wonderful Rhetoric class under his instruction. We think it would be well for some of the many readers of the REPUBLICAN to drop in some day and hear some of their compositions, dreams &c. Professor says this is the finest Rhetoric class ever in Hartford College. We think he has forgotten his class last spring, and sometimes can't tell just why, we feel a little buddy, when he talks this way in our presence. Though we know how to take the "Prof."

Poor "Jim" it seems as though the girls have a regular "pick" at him.
They even go so far as to dream of him, but, like the grand fellow he is, takes it all good humoredly. Well might Professor be proud of his classes composed of such noble girls and boys, and well might they strive to please such a noble teacher.

As we are regular church-goers, of course we have been attending the meeting in progress at the Baptist Church. Bro. Saltee is a grand, good man, and an able preacher. We hope much good may be accomplished.
It seems as though the Adelpheans will be as much like the R. E. C's as possible. The Adelpheans have postponed their entertainment to some future time. They accused the R. E.
C's of postponing in order to have more time to practice, we suppose this is their game. But, nevertheless, we predict a bright future for the boys. It has been said the Adelpheans were like rubber balls, throw them down and they will bounce back, the harder, you throw a ball the farther 'twill bounce, so look out, girls, you gave the boys a pretty hard throw and you know how "Balls" will bounce.

WASHINGTON LETTER.
April 11.—Vice President Morton definitely settled a question that had, owing to statements made both ways, become somewhat doubtful, by stating that he had never said that he would not accept a renomination, and that he would accept it if the convention sees fit to tender it to him, and would go into the fight with vigor, but that he will not be a participant in any struggle for the nomination. This manly way of stating his position is commendable on all sides, and will add to the popularity which Mr. Morton so justly enjoys, whether he be renominated or not.

The reason the State Department has not made public the details of the reciprocity treaty recently negotiated with France is that the treaty does not become binding until it is ratified by the French Chamber of Deputies, before which it is now pending. Representative Hitt, of Illinois, is understood to be slated as Whitlaw Reid's successor as Minister to France. It would be difficult to find a man better fitted for the place.

Secretary Blaine has few close or more confidential friends than Whitelaw Reid, who spent several days here this week, discussing and explaining the two treaties he negotiated with France, and in view of the rumors recently freshly started about Mr. Blaine's becoming a candidate for the Presidential nomination, his words on the nomination are important.

WILL YOU SUFFER with Dyspepsia and Liver complaint? Shiloh's

He said, just after spending a day with Mr. Blaine "I see no reason.
If he wishes it, why Mr. Harrison should not be nominated. His administration has been a clean one and acceptable to the people, and, with Mr. Blaine out of the way, I think there will be but little opposition.
Mr. Blaine is not a candidate. I believe every word he said in his letter.
He meant what he said."

The investigation of the Pension Office has now been going on a month and the only result is that the House is asking to authorize the payment of $10 a day to a stenographer for an indefinite period.

According to a Treasury statement issued this week the circulation per capita on the first day of April was $24.68.

The Chinese minister is making a very great mistake in trying to influence the action of the Senate upon the anti-Chinese bill by making threats. There are at present some Senators who will oppose the bill, because of their belief that it is wrong, even to accomplish an end very much desired, to violate obligations contained in treaties with China; but if the minister keeps up his threats of withdrawing from this country and severing diplomatic relations with us, he will probably find that there will be no opponents to the bill when it comes before the Senate for action upon it.

The present anti-Chinese law expires in less than a month by limitation, and the probabilities are that the bill shutting out all Chinese, except those officially connected with the government of that country which was passed by the House this week, under a suspension of the rules, will before that time have become a law.

Several very exciting speeches have been made in the Senate this week, on Senator Morgan's silver resolutions, notably that of Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, who attacked Mr. Harrison and the administration because the House failed to pass the silver bill when it was up the other day.

What is lacking is truth and confidence. If there were absolute truth on the one hand and absolute confidence on the other, it wouldn't be necessary for the makers of Dr. Sage's Cataract Remedy to back up a plain statement of fact by a $500 guarantee.

"They say 'If we can't cure you (make it personal, please) of cataract in the head, in any form or stage, we'll pay you $500 for your trouble in making the trial.' An advertising trick," you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute? Wise

Secretary Rusk Says We are Approaching the Golden era of Agriculture.

A correspondent asked the Secretary of Agriculture whether the American farmer would always be able to supply the people of the United States with food if they continued to increase as they do now.

Uncle Jerry replied at once in this wise: "Always is a long time, but I think I can speak for a good many years to come. We have hardly begun to tap the great agricultural wealth of the United States. It is true that the day must soon come when all the good public lands will be taken up—the best are gone now —but after that modern invention will turn toward our vast areas of desert and swamp. The first will be irrigated and the latter will be drained.
The swamp lands of the South will be reclaimed and diked. We have a second Holland along some parts of the Gulf of Mexico and the golden age of farming will be at hand. As this goes on farms will steadily increase in value. They are now a large part of the aggregate wealth of the country. Twelve years ago our five million farmers were worth $10, 000,000,000 and they produce yearly crops worth more than $4,000,000, 000. We talk of poverty of the farmer, but by the census of 1880 the stock on the farms alone was worth over $1,500,000,000 and by statistics which we have over at my department to-day our live stock is worth nearly twice as much now. We know how to prevent diseases of stock and we have gained also in better breeding and better feeding. To-day our best beef is sold at two years old. It was not many years since beef was not thought to be beef unless the animal was at least four years old, and yet the meat of the two-year-old becomes of to-day is of the finest quality and it surpasses in weight that of average four-year-olds of twenty years ago.
Where heaves can be turned off in half the time a man can raise twice as many of the same kind, and the early maturity of our mutton and swine is to-day as marked as that of our beef.

"It is the same in all branches of farming, and I believe that the prosperous era of the farmer is just beginning. The people of this world have got to be fed, and their food must come from the soil. We have 65,000,000 people here to-day. Twenty years from now we will have 100,000,000, and in less than two generations 200,000,000 Americans will wake up every morning in these United States and cry to the farmers for breakfast."

FARMERS IN POLITICS.
"The new organizations of the farmers," says Secretary Rusk, "are an indication of the growth of their intellectual life. They are thinking for themselves and their ideas show that they are awake and that they are studying their own interests. I am glad to see it. I think the country is to be congratulated upon the awakening interest which they have in political affairs, and I believe that they are, by their numbers and peculiar position, especially well fitted to serve as balance wheel in political matters. Extremists may be found in their ranks as in the ranks of other classes, but in our future the capitalist will learn to trust the farmer as a man who owns property and can never be a communist; and, on the other hand, the laborer will never become a monopolist. I do not apprehend that the farmers will ever be a political party of themselves in the United States. Their interests are wrapped up in those of the rest of the country, and the success of all classes and all industries. They will continue to support such great ideas and public questions as come before the country, and the differences of opinion will be as great among them as among the members of the other classes. They are the most conservative element of the United States.
They do more honest thinking than the people of the towns. They generate public sentiment, and the uniformity of them are seldom wrong."

ABBIEVILLE.
April 9.—The intelligence that we are to have a new Schoolhouse, has given the people about here something to talk about. Everybody is agreed that a house is badly needed, but the few who own the wealth of the neighborhood are disposed to rebel against the idea of having to bear so much more of the expense than they will be benefited directly by the house.
While this appears a little unfair it is unavoidable. The Schoolhouse is a necessity and has been for years, and a good commodious house should be built at once, it should be well furnished with comfortable seats, maps, charts, globes and such other things as are necessary to illustrate the subject to be taught.

Alex Hoover a few days ago bought a fine mare of Rev. Dan Yeiser.
Last Monday it got out of the stable and went away. Mr. Hoover went next day to Rev. Yeiser's on hunt of her, but she had not returned, nor has Mr. Hoover been able to obtain any news of her.

Rev. D. J. K. Maddox filled his regular appointment here last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Jack Atherton and little grandson, Carl Owen, have been visiting Mrs. V. Martin, Greenville, daughter of Mrs. Atherton, for the past two weeks.

Miss Martha Atherton, near Pleasant Hill, is visiting her sister, Mrs.
Stella Vance, at this time.

Miss Lulu Cox visited home last Saturday and Sunday.

L. F. Charlet and family have returned to Abbeville.

S. R. Ashby came home last night from the mouth of Pond River. He will return Monday to run his logs to Evansville.

CENTERTOWN.
Alvin Rowe and wife, have gone to Louisville to purchase their spring stock of goods.

Miss Anna (Tugerson), who has been visiting friends in Kinderhook, is at home again.

A. M. Jones visited relatives and friends here last week.

Misses Anna La Wale, Eva Tich-ener, Lillie and Carrie Rowe spent yesterday with friends in town.

Dr. H. L. King was called to Parades Saturday losses H. C. Fox, who is seriously ill.

Prof. A. Leo Bennett, Rosine, visited his family here Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Myers and little brothers, Edward and Robert, Covington, Tenn., arrived Friday, and will visit the families of Mrs. Mary Bennett and Dr. King for several weeks.

Mrs. M. K. Benton, who has been visiting relatives at Owensboro and Henderson, the past two weeks came home yesterday.

Rev. J. A. Bennett turned over his resignation as pastor of the church at Walton's Creek, March 26. We are exceedingly sorry to give him up. The prayers and affectionate regard of his many friends here will be with him in his new field of labor.

Our Sunday School under the management of Rev. Mac Ford, Mr. J. K.
Smith and others is doing splendidly.
Great interest is being manifested by both old and young people. May the good work continue.

BEDA.
Miss Laura Cook began a spring school here Monday.

Mrs. S. A. Bennett, who has been on the sick list for some time, is improving.

Born, to the wife of C. M. Barnett on the 24th inst., a 9 pound boy. He is a Republican.

L. H. Leach, Sulphur Springs, visited our town one day last week.

Henry Levi has moved into the house vacated by L. H. Leach.

A Sabbath School was organized at
C. P. Church Sunday, Christians,

Mustang
Liniment.

A Cure for the Ailments of Man and Beast.

A long-tested pain reliever.
Its use is almost universal by the Housewife, the Farmer, the Stock Raiser, and by every one requiring an effective liniment.

No other application compares with it in efficacy.
This well-known remedy has stood the test of years, almost generations.

No medicine chest is complete without a bottle of MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Occasions arise for its use almost every day.
All druggists and dealers have it.

The Pittsburgh Lamp is one of those inventions that seems to be finished. It seems to reach the end as to goodness of light in every way, and ease of management.

The only care it requires is wiping and wiping.
Dirt falls out when the lens is taken off, not into a pocket as in other central-light lamps.

Putting in a new wick is a very easy matter indeed.

All this seems strange to one who knows how troublesome other good lamps are.

It is in all the good lamp-stores. Send for a primer.
